

UNITS AVAILABLE FOR ADOPTION

HHC, 1st Medical Brigade – 91 person unit that provides command, control, administrative assistance, and technical supervision of assigned and attached medical units, while providing combat health support to supported forces.

HHD, 36th Medical Evacuation Battalion – 52 person unit that provides command, control, and logistical support of assigned and attached air and ground medical evacuation units within the theater of operations.

HHD, 61st Multifunctional Medical Battalion – 76 person unit that provides a flexible and modular medical battle command, administrative assistance, logistical support, and technical supervision capability for assigned and attached medical organizations for support of deployed forces.

21st Combat Support Hospital – 480 person unit that provides hospitalization and outpatient services. Headquarters provides command and control of all organic and attached units whose functions include: medical planning, support operations, personnel support, logistical support, communications support, information management support, and laundry service support.

546th Area Support Medical Company – 83 person unit that provides emergency care, disease prevention, combat stress support, casualty collection, and evacuation to more comprehensive medical treatment to supported forces.

566th Area Support Medical Company – 83 person unit that provides emergency care, disease prevention, combat stress support, casualty collection, and evacuation to more comprehensive medical treatment to supported forces.

581st Area Support Medical Company – 83 person unit that provides emergency care, disease prevention, combat stress support, casualty collection, and evacuation to more comprehensive medical treatment to supported forces.

85th Medical Detachment (Combat Stress) – 42 person unit that provides flexible combat stress control reconstitution support and preventive and treatment services in support of forces.

418th Medical Logistics Company – 80 person unit that provides direct support for medical supplies, single and multi-vision optical lens fabrication and repair, and medical equipment maintenance to supported medical units.

582nd Medical Logistics Company – 80 person unit that provides direct support for medical supplies, single and multi-vision optical lens fabrication and repair, and medical equipment maintenance to supported medical units.

591st Medical Logistics Company - 80 person unit that provides direct support for medical supplies, single and multi-vision optical lens fabrication and repair, and medical equipment maintenance to supported medical units.

502nd Dental Company – 94 person unit that provides emergency, preventive, general and specialty dental care to supported forces.